Based on the iconic, Academy Award®-winning film, this immersive stage adaptation captures the triumphant spirit of the beloved classic in a production both epic and intimate. It is the true story of two British athletes competing in the 1924 Olympics: Harold Abrahams, the son of a Lithuanian immigrant Jew who runs to overcome prejudice and Eric Liddell, a devout Christian who runs for the glory of God, both united in the relentless pursuit of their dream.

"Experience our theatre transformed into an Olympic stadium with a track running through the audience as well as onstage seating. The runners will be close enough for you to feel the air move as they race past. This play is filled with music, adventure, youth, vitality, and the unmistakable presence of passion. Come run with us." - DENNIS GARNHUM, Artistic Director

Please complete the registration form below and, together with your check made out to HPBC, place it in the box provided at the Welcome Desk or mail it to Irma Henderson, 704 S. Alexander Ave, Royal Oak, 48067.
